Policy & Procedures Manual

Volume 2 – Operations

Section 203 – Fire Operations

203.7 – Off-Duty Responses

Off duty personnel are encouraged to respond whenever an Incident Commander issues a request for additional staffing at any scene.

Off duty personnel shall use the following criteria to make an off duty response when not specifically requested by the Incident Commander.

- Confirmed working structure or ground cover fires, or fires threatening structures.
- Rescue incidents involving extrication or some type of Special Operations rescue.
- Critical patient conditions involving life threatening illnesses or injuries.
- Hazardous Materials incidents.
- Any incident in which the off-duty personnel could arrive on the scene significantly sooner than an on duty unit(s).
- Any Mutual Aid Fire/Rescue responses to assist other fire departments when staffing is requested.
